RECTOR'S BLOG: FROM FOR TO WITH - "Last week we held our first ever MeAC & Cheese event, celebrating and highlighting our work with Madisonville Education and Assistance Center (MEAC). Over 100 people attended, raising funds for MEAC's life-changing work in the Queen City. Also, we ate delicious food. It was totally worth it.

That event kicked off what I like to think of as the Season of MEAC at Redeemer. Because, as we continue to finetune our Mission ministry at Church of the Redeemer, we have a desire to strengthen our relationships with our neighbors. This desire is for us all to think of our association with Madisonville as work with and alongside MEAC to offer help and hope to our neighbors in crisis.

To that end, if you are looking to get involved with Mission at Redeemer, I hope you recognize our partnership with MEAC as an opportunity to work with our neighbors to change lives in positive, practical, transformative ways in Jesus' name."
