

WELCOME TO THE BANQUET

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JUNE 7, 2026

11AM

Wesley, Frank, 1923-2002. Woman with the Flow of Blood (detail), from Art in the Christian Tradition, a project of the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, Nashville, TN.

Church of the Redeemer is committed to reducing paper use and exploring the expanded role of technology in worship. Please consider viewing this bulletin on a personal electronic device using the QR code located on the back of the pews.

PRELUDE

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

GATHERING SONG

Please stand as you are able.

CROWDED TABLE

The Highwomen

You can hold my hand

When you need to let go

I can be your mountain

When you're feeling valley-low

I can be your streetlight

Showing you the way home

You can hold my hand

When you need to let go

Chorus: I want a house with a crowded table

And a place by the fire for everyone

Let us take on the world while we're young and able

And bring us back together when the day is done

If we want a garden

We're gonna have to sow the seed

Plant a little happiness

Let the roots run deep

If it's love that we give

Then it's love that we reap

If we want a garden

We're gonna have to sow the seed

Chorus

The door is always open

Your picture's on my wall

Everyone's a little broken

And everyone belongs

Yeah, everyone belongs

Chorus

PRAYER

Let us pray: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear what the Lord Jesus Christ says: Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and the greatest commandment. And the second is like it: love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

BIBLICAL POETRY

A SONG OF GOD'S LOVE

Said by all

1 John 4:7-11

Beloved, let us love one another, *
for love is of God.

Whoever does not love does not know God, *
for God is Love.

In this the love of God was revealed among us, *
that God sent their only Son into the world,
so that we might live through Jesus Christ.

In this is love, not that we loved God but that God loved us * and sent their Son that sins might be forgiven.

Beloved, since God loved us so much, *
we ought also to love one another.

For if we love one another, God abides in us, *
and God's love will be perfected in us.

As we sing, the reader comes to the middle of the room, just as Christ comes among us. All turn in toward the reader.

I am weak, and I need Thy strength and power
To help me over my weakest hour;
Let me through the darkness Thy face to see,
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

READING

MATTHEW 9:9-13, 18-26

Please sit.

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me."

And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well." Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, "Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

Lead me, guide me along the way;
For if You lead me, I cannot stray;
Lord, let me walk each day with Thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

We are convinced that the wisdom and image of God is present equally in all people. Thus, after the homily and a brief time of pause and reflection, the floor will be opened for a discussion and sharing around the themes of the text. There is space provided in your bulletins or the art notebooks for you to take notes or reflect in any way that would be meaningful for you. All we be welcome to share.

HOMILY

Please feel free to use the space below to reflect on what words or images might be emerging for you this morning.

CONVERSATION

We welcome now a time of sharing and conversation. There is so much wisdom here, we invite you to share what is coming up for you or what you have drawn or what questions you may have. All are welcome to share. All are welcome to disagree. Please raise your hand and a microphone will come to you.

BAPTISMAL COVENANT

This is a statement that we repeat in order to remember who we are, who God is and how we want to live in the world.

Leader God is One God,

All the almighty, creator of heaven and earth, of all that is - seen and unseen.

God is Jesus Christ,

the eternal Son, divine and human, our Savior. His life, death, and resurrection reveal to us that God is love.

God is The Holy Spirit,

at work in the world. Speaking through prophets past and present, inspiring us, holding us accountable, leading us to grow into the full stature of Christ.

With God's help,

We will continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers.

With God's help,

We will persevere in resisting evil, and when falling into sin, we will repent and return to God.

With God's help,

We will proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ.

With God's help,

We will seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving our neighbor as ourself.

With God's help,

We will strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being.

CONFESSIO AND RESPONSE

God, you have called us to be Love in the world:

We do not always recognize our belovedness;

We do not always recognize the belovedness of our neighbor;

We know we harm our relationship with you

And our relationships with each other

With words said and unsaid

With deeds done and undone

We ask for your unreserved forgiveness.

We ask for your unconditional love.

Help us to forgive without reservation.

Help us to love without condition.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

PEACE

The Peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

All are invited, to follow with us on the path of the cross and find the nourishment at the table of God's love.

Come, Let us walk in love, as Christ loves us.

As the music plays, the congregation will gather around the altar on the for communion. Please bring your bulletin with you.

SONG

HOW FIRM A FOUNDATION

1982 #637

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said,
to you that for refuge to Jesus have fled?

2 "Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismayed!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand, upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
the rivers of woe shall not thee overflow;
for I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
and sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

5 "The soul that to Jesus hath fled for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to its foes;
that soul, though all hell shall endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no, never, no, never forsake."

COMMUNION PRAYER

The Eucharistic Prayer has been adapted from St. Gregory of Nyssa Episcopal Church, San Francisco.

Celebrant It is with all our hearts and all our minds

People We give thanks to you, Mother and Father of all creation
You make all things and call them good.
You love us into being,
You form us in your image and breathe into us the breath of life.

Intercessor Give thanks for God's work among all of her people.
Free prayers from the people.

Celebrant When we turn away, when we ignore your love.

All You remain steadfast. You are faithful to us.
You liberate us from captivity,
Freeing us to love your world more fully
You set before us the way of life.

Intercessor Pray for enemies and for friends.
Free prayers from the people.

Intercessor Pray for the violent and for those who suffer at others' hands.
Free prayers from the people.

Celebrant Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.
By his baptism of suffering and death
you give your people birth into a living hope.
Raising Jesus from the dead,
you make a new covenant with us,
by water and the Spirit,
and give us to one another.

All We who were lost people are now your people,
declaring your wonderful deeds in Christ,
who calls us out of death into his Life.

Intercessor Pray for the hungry and sick and afraid.
Free prayers from the people.

Intercessor Pray for prisoners and those without homes.
Free prayers from the people.

Celebrant On the night when he gave himself up for us,
he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples, and said,

“Take, eat: this is my Body which is broken for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”
When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said, “Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”

Intercessor Pray for the dead and for mourners.
Free prayers from the people.

Celebrant On the third day you raised Jesus from the dead and revealed him to the women who came to the tomb to care for his body.
On that day Jesus was recognized by his disciples in the breaking of bread.
And so, remembering these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
We offer ourselves as a holy and living sacrifice,
and we praise you and we bless you.

All We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you
our God.

Celebrant Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ that we may be for the world
the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.
By your spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other,
and one in loving service to all the world,
until all may feast at your heavenly banquet.
Through your Son Jesus Christ, and with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, we are bold to say

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

FRACTION

Behold what you are. Become what you receive.
The gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

All are welcome to gather at the table of God's love.

If you would like to receive the sacrament, please come forward.

Once you have received the bread, you are invited to dip it in the cup or drink from the cup if you would like.

If you would like gluten free, please let us know.

After, you are invited to return to your original seat.

COMMUNION MUSIC

HUNGRY

KATHRYN SCOTT

Hungry I come to You for I know You satisfy
I am empty but I know Your love does not run dry
So I wait for You
So I wait for You
I'm falling on my knees
Offering all of me
Jesus You're all this heart is living for Broken I run to You for Your arms are open wide
I am weary but I know Your touch restores my life.
So I wait for You
So I wait for You

I'm falling on my knees
Offering all of me
Jesus You're all this heart is living for

PRAYER OF SAINT FRANCIS

Said by all, please turn to face the open doors of the nave, as we prepare to go into the world.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon;
where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

BLESSING

DISMISSAL

Deacon dismisses the People and the People respond.

Thanks be to God.

PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN

Welcome to The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer!

We love the sound of kids in our service.

Here are some ideas to keep them engaged:

Relax: It's OK for kids to be kids. We offer coloring pages, worship bags, and books they can use during the service.

Sit Close: Consider sitting up front where it's easier for kids to see.

Explain: Kids are curious! Explain what's happening in the service.

Participate: Kids learn by mimicking what you do. So sing, pray, respond, etc. and kids will follow your lead.

Wander: It's OK to move around. Sometimes it's easier to let fidgety kids wander.

Need to Leave? No problem, there are spaces to take a break - kids need that sometimes. Come back when you're ready!

Ask: Questions or need help? Just ask our ushers.

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs."

Matthew 19:14 NRSV
